

100-415201

PATHE NEWS 61-54

RUSSIAN DANCES WITH FRENCH

29. Rudolph Nourcev, the Soviet ballet star who walked out on the Leningrad State Kirov Ballet and asked for asylum in France, is to dance in the country of his adoption.

up

64. The Press In Paris learned that Nourcev declined to be sent back to Russia, knowing that he was very much out of favour with the authorities. At this stage he would not say more, but continued his rehearsal for the Sleeping Beauty. Ballet experts declare that the young Russian is the Nijinsky of the 1960s.