

SPURS WIN AND HOW!

The all-in-white Spurs and Gornik renewed their European Cup battle. 57,000 saw the Poles kick off. In their rig-out Spurs looked like Real Madrid, and played like them, stung by the 4-2 defeat Gornik inflicted on them the week before, in Poland. Outside-right Cliff Jones soon indicated that this was a very different Spurs. Then Osizlo brought down Smith; Penalty.

Danny Blanchflower took the kick.

Gornik determined to show they were still in the game. Centre-forward Janowski got to the ball, without testing Brown.

How good it was to see that Spurs had clicked into last season's form. Jones headed the second goal.

Again Jones tried, without luck.

After Spurs' third goal, Gornik hit back. Pohl met the ball on the volley, and it was in the net.

A Spurs corner, from the right. Bobby Smith scored.

Second half. Spurs leading, 5-1, and looking as though they might make it ten, before the end. Playing like his old self, Les Allen felt it was high time he got one too. Kostka thought otherwise.

Gornik must have known it was hopeless by now, but they didn't wilt. Brown had to be alert to save this one.

Allen took the corner. Up went Smith. Goal number six.

Spurs were insatiable, but still Gornik didn't give up. Brown foiled them again.

Almost on time the ball went to John White. Fast he controlled it and gave Kostka no chance. Spurs amazing 8-1 victory made them winners on aggregate by 10-5.
