

26.6.66.

The second National Spartakiade.

The happy youth.

The gymnastics of 15.360 girls juniors, dressed in blue, with white circles. The white circle is made from polyethylen. You can undo it, and it enables to make different shapes with it. The gymnastic is composed so, that the prettiness and charm of the young girls excels.

26. 6. 60.

Petr Lando

The Second Whole State Spirtakiade.

Fairy-Tale

Story /Children 6 - 8 years./

The gyanastic of 5.500 children from Prague and the near surrounding.

The children are of 6six till seven years of age. The theme of Fairy Tale.

this composition is a story: The children perform sparrows just as thoroughly as for instance Johnny from the fairy-tale. By a e very gay dance ends this gymnastic.

Red balls.

The gyanastics of 16.000 chosen gymnasts from all regions of the Czechoslovak Republic. They are girls from 11 to 14 years of age.

The gymnasts in green skirts and yellow blouses have each a red ball. It is possible to circle with it like with a cone. The throwing of the 16.000 balls upon the grounds sounds like far off thunderstorm.

The army.

With courage to discipline and perseverance. The gymnastics of 2.172 soldiers, gymnasts. One of the most successful gyanastics of the IInd whole state sprtakiade. The gymnasts in white suits, sun-burned. The author of the composition Jan Seehák. The gymnastic is rich on unit changes. First a short drill, then follows the the composition tables. First one sees precisely on seconds 272 gymnasts, each alone on one table. Then drill on every table two gymnasts. The composition culminates with an exciting circling of bodies in motion. And everything in a precise rythm of seconds.