BEN GURION

Ben Gurion arrived at the military Airport Ypenburg for an unofficial State-Visit of 2 days.

At the Royal Palace Soestdijk, he was the guest of Queen Juliana, who had invited the Israilian Ambassador Sidor and his wife for lunch too.

Ben Gurion also visited the Portuguese Synagoge in Amsterdam, here <sup>he</sup> was greeted by the Dutch Jewish Community. This was a very impressive visit.

In the Hague the Premier finished his visit with a Press-Conference. He had a great admiration for the Delta-works, which he had seen during a flight over them. He called them unique in the world. It was to be expected that he had to answer some questions of Eichmann. David Ben Gurion was very positive and said that Eichmann should be committed for trial in Israel.
