

ROYAL WEDDING.

6-795901
FROM HAMBURG.

25. 7. 60.

The longest wedding of the year which lasted one whole week culminated in the marriage ceremony on Thursday in the Castle church of Altshausen.

Duke, Carl of Wurttemberg and his Fiancee, Princess Diane of France were married with Catholic Rights. The 24-year-old Bridegroom who has studied Law is the future head of the House of Wurttemberg. The 20-year-old Princess is the daughter of the Count of Paris.

Early in the morning a salute of 101 shots by the Castle guard, in historic uniform, opened the day. At 10.30. the Princess was escorted in procession from the new Palace to the Church. The wedding was celebrated (I think they mean conducted) by the Bishop of Rottenburg, Wilhelm Sedlmeier. European nobility attended the celebrations. The young couple will live in the Castle at Friedrichshafen, on Lake Constance. The Castle was the summer residence of the Kings of Wurttemberg, and was partly destroyed during the last war...
