

10322-2

60/76.

DALI JEWELS ON SHOW.

Champagne all round indicated a very special occasion at Sotheby's, where Mrs. Owen Cheatham, explaining the Salvador Dali jewels. The Light of Christ is one of the striking pieces designed by the famous artist. The Eye of Time is another; and much admired was Ruby Lips. They are striking examples of how the artist expresses himself in jewellery. The Royal Heart is in gold, with pulsating rubies.

The master's latest creation is the Angel Cross. To quote Dali, "it corresponds to the hyperxiological concept of existence". Let's take his word for it.