AIR MINISTRY,
INFORMATION DIVISION,
WHITEHALL,
LONDON, S.W.1.

5th September, 1960

Dear Sir,

Representatives of "The Few", including many of the well known "aces", will be among the Air Council guests at a reception at Lancaster House on the evening of the Wednesday of Battle of Britain Week (September, 14th) to mark the 20th Anniversary of the Battle and to honour those who fell in it.

The Prime Minister will be present. Guests, who will be received by the Secretary of State for Air, Mr. George Ward and members of the Air Council, will include diplomatic representatives of Commonwealth and Allied countries, past and present members of the Government, high-ranking officers who helped to direct the Battle, civic dignitaries, representatives of the aircraft industry and senior officers of the three Services.

You are invited to send a reporter to the reception. I would be grateful if you would indicate acceptance, or otherwise, as soon as possible giving the name of your reporter. Further details will be given to your representative on nomination. (The dress for civilians invited is evening dress or dinner jacket, with miniatures)

Yours faithfully,

C. L. Fisher

(C. L. FISHER)
for Chief Information Officer
