

RODEO STARS WITH STRIPES IN TEXAS

The annual Prison Rodeo at Huntsville, Texas -- with the "shootin' irons" strictly for the guards -- while the inmates are quick on the draw of sassy bulls..... and just as quick at hittin' the dust! Proceeds from the rodeo are used to provide many services within the prison..... including no doubt a more than ample supply of limiment. They call it the "world's wildest rodeo" -- and the broncs, they second the motion. The prison cowpokes take it all very seriously..... as you'll soon see....
