

MISS WORLD'S A WOW

There were more figures than a chartered accountant could have coped with at the Lyceum; the loveliest creatures of 39 countries, all hoping to win the title, Miss World. Some good judges of that sort of thing gave statistics their full attention, while the parade of beauty entertained an audience of 2,000.

Beauty nourished in the United Kingdom; Hilda Fairclough of Heysham.

From across the Atlantic came Judith Achter, a model, only recently out of high school.

A honey blond from Dusseldorf is Miss Germany. She is Ingrun Moeckel. Five-feet ten of lissom beauty; a fashion model.

Denise Muir, South Africa. Third place. And from Israel, Gila Golan. She won second place.

21-year-old Norma Cappagli, Miss Argentina, was the lucky winner of the title. At 21 the Buenos Aires brunette becomes Miss World; the sultry sensation of Latin America.
