The Enquiry mentioned in attached cutting will be at

BANBURY TOWNHALL
10 a.m. Tuesday, Nov. 8

Min. Housing and local Government will be represented by an inspector, Mr. ~~Pinell~~, and anybody of note locally who wishes to attend.

YEOMANS

Pinell will have no objection to a few shots being taken before the meeting starts business.

The places chiefly affected are SWERFORD
D ~~DEDD~~ DEDDINGTON
~~WIGGINTON~~
WIGGINTON
GREAT ~~PEW~~, T

all within six-or-so miles of Banbury. They are all Cotswolds villages, and Great Pew is a well known beauty spot and is probably the place referred to in the article.

This story would normally be covered by Panorama, but fortunately the whole Panorama unit are in U.S. for the Election.
