MAESTROS RULE THE WAVES.

The top hairdo talent of Europe competed for the International Championship at Versailles, in a marquee, put up in the historic grounds. The Coiffures were all based on paintings of the Princess de Lamballe, close friend of Marie Antoinette. The Princess lost her head under the guillotine. Our man in Versailles had a close shave.

It shows what a mistake it is for a girl to scrape it all back and have a pony-tail.

He can't believe his eyes. A lovely girl as good as saying:
"Won't you come into my parlour?"
