

SEAFORTH'S LAST PARADE.

The Seaforth Highlanders, famous Scots regiment, renowned for its valour on the battle field and its smartness on the parade ground, held its farewell ceremonial parade before General Sir James Cassels, C-in-C the British Army of the Rhine at Muenster, Germany. The regiment will shortly return to Scotland for amalgamation with the Queens Own Cameron Highlanders to form the 1st Battalion the Queens Own Highlanders.

A sad but proud farewell occasion for the men who have had the privilege to serve in the Seaforths, founded almost two hundred years ago.
