

2-274901
60/98.

CHIANG'S AT SEA.

The look of war, but fortunately only manoeuvres. The forces of Chiang Kai Shek staged a mass landing with a hundred warships and 60,000 troops taking part, under the eye of the Generalissimo himself. A lot of sound and fury signifying that Chiang's ready for anything.

Chiang figured that if all this couldn't make Mao say Tung, he'd have to try again, some other fine day.