

"TEN PIN" UP & UP.

Dagenham gave a warm greeting to the Princess Bowl, largest bowling centre in Britain. Associated British top executives welcomed Christine Truman and other famous folk who came for the official opening. It's amazing how the sport's caught on in a short time. Peter Haigh and Marty Wilde not to mention Neil McCallum, Charles Hawtry, Christine Truman and Bernie Winters could hardly wait for their turn.

Marty Wilde.

Motor-cycle ace John Surtees.

Carole Lesley proved that a girl needn't be an athlete to have a shot at Ten Pin.

Stanley Baker - the masculine touch.

The Princess Bowl was off to a great start.
