

HATS BY DIOR

Top security was lifted; the secret was revealed. Spring hats are worn off the face, fitting the back of the head. Dior has spoken, showing a collection at Dorlores House. Everybody knows that few tonics are better for woman than a new hat. And who can deny that there's a lot of need these days for hats worth looking at.

The Buccaneer Line (this is one) has large brims to flatter the profile. Then there is Snow Drop, a saucer-boater with a natural straw brim.

With the promise of a lovely June is a rose petal Chignon affair called Royal Ascot.

Next best tonic to a new hat is a slap-up wedding. Anyway, it winds up the show.
