FAMOUS HORSE AUCTION IS REVIVED

Wanna buy a horse? In New York, a famous harness horse auction is revived -- five hundred head, three quarters of a million dollars worth of horseflesh -- with expert drivers, owners and breeders watching the trotters and pacers being "knocked down" for fancy prices. A high<sup>o</sup>point of the three-day auction comes when a really top-notch pacer, four-year-old Mr. Budlong, is put on the block. We share the excitement as the auctioneer builds to the biggest sell..... forty-seven thousand dollars.....Listent
