

GREETINGS FOR PRINCESS.

All roads had led to Shannon Airport, where more than 1,200 people saw the Air Lingus Viscount arrive from London Airport bringing Princess Margaret and her husband, Mr. Anthony Armstrong-Jones. Her Royal Highness, was making her first trip to Eire. The Princess and her husband were beginning a 10-day visit to Birr Castle, home of the Countess of Rosse, Mr. Armstrong Jones's mother.

At St. Brendan's Church next day Princess Margaret and her party attended Divine Service, an opportunity for still more people to see her!

It was an unofficial visit and it was obvious that the Irish hereabouts have taken to their hearts the Royal visitors to Birr Castle.
