

HAIRCUTS FOR SALE.

The sales have a new field. Bob a Mob, or haircuts at half price, brought a quick response from long haired inhabitants of Amersham, taking advantage of the offer to get spruced up at cheap rates. All they want is the same short back and sides they had six months ago.

You too can be another Yul Brynner.

The sweepings at the end of the day would stuff a large sofa. Not only the men benefit. Some Amersham Delilah will go for this Sampson in a big way.

Go in, sonny, there's no catch in it.

Inside he can join that motley crew getting a crew out.
