INSTALLATION OF HIS MAJESTY YANG DI-PERTUAN AGONG OF THE FEDERATION OF MALAYA

The Raja of Perlis, Tuanku Syed Putra, was installed as Malaya's third Yang di-Pertuan Agong today.

The Tengku Abdul Rahman Hall, where the royal ceremony was conducted, was bathed with floodlights and filled with rainbow colours.

The dais, bearing the intricately carved throne embossed with the Coat of Arms, was draped in royal yellow material.

On either side were platforms also draped in yellow. On the right platform were seated the Rulers of the various States and on the left their consorts.

Flanking both walls stood spear and umbrella bearers.

Adding to the brilliance of the scene were the multi-coloured costumes worn by the V.I.P. wives of different races.

It was into this splendid setting that Their Majesties walked in as a fanfare of trumpets announced their arrival.

The Raja Permaisuri Agong looked enchanting in her flowing gold-threaded kebaya and the spotlights playing on her diamond-mounted tiara.

The King was dressed in black with gold lacing and wore his many decorations. Affixed to the front of the royal headwear was a crescent and an 11 pointed star made of platinum and ringed with 66 diamonds.

He also wore the gilded Kris of State, symbol of power and authority.

The chief feature of the solemn ceremony was the reading of the proclamation by the Prime Minister, and the Grand Chamberlain and all present acclaiming "Daulat Tuanku" (Hail the Sovereign) three times.

Following this the Kedah Royal Nobat (court musicians) played "Raja Bertabal" and a 21 gun salute fired from the grounds of the hall echoed over the Federal capital.

Malaya's new King was installed.
