

DANCING CHAMPIONSHIPS.

Many of the best dancers in Britain competed in the Butlin's Silver Jubilee Festival in the Albert Hall.

Following the Waltz, the Quickstep.

The Tango Finals.

Billy Butlin himself came to the microphone to announce the names of the winners. The judges had made a popular choice, Bob Burgess and Doreen Freeman. The first prize was £100 in cash and the 150-guinea Challenge Trophy. Bob and Doreen come from London. They've never won this Championship before.
