TWIN BEARS MAKE BOW.

Aren't they simply adorable: Teddy bears come to life. That was the general verdict on the first day they were on view. Hm, Temper. All this fuss over two bears.

The weekly weigh-in showed that Davy and Mandy are getting along well; Davy 12 lbs, Mandy 15. They're named after two children who went to the Zoo to see them in February, but weren't allowed to, as the cubs were too young. Little bears mean big business at the Zoo. Easter looks like being a sell out.
