

BALLROOM CHAMPIONS.

It was one of the big dancing nights of the year at the Lyceum, a competition for both dancing and beauty.

There was also a prize for the prettiest home made frock. And from where I'm sitting quite a nice bit of homework. Irene Harris was the winner. Quite at her ease she received the purchase voucher of £25 and a silver trophy. Irene, 21, is a Glasgow shorthand typist. Now, how about speeding up the tempo; the rock-n-roll contest.

Sheila Ford and Brian Newham were the winners. The prize, £10 and a trophy. A popular award.
