

MINIATURE COURT MAGIC

These are the Dover Basketeers from Ohio -- putting on an amazing exhibition at Evansville, Indiana. They're watch-pocket size -- averaging five-two and ninety-fivepounds -- and range from eleven to fourteen years of age -- but they're giants in the ball-handling department; crowd-pleasers in the manner of the famed Globetrotters as merry-making magicians of the hardwood court. Their razzle-dazzle antics may look easy.....but try it sometimes in your own gymnasium or schoolyard.....it takes superbly-trained young athletes to carry out the maneuvers executed by the Lilliputian court jesters. Watch this dribbling performance. They're top-notch in every department. Of course, as your coach will tell you - making that basket is the most important trick!
