

THIS IS REAL ROCK AND ROLL

At the Lyceum it was exclusively a rock-n-roll evening. No less than the Grand Finals in the Championships of Great Britain. And on the floor, the cream of the country's talent. Edinburgh, represented by Alex and Sheila Campbell. But never mind where they all come from; let's get with it.

Bill Oakes and Thelma Johnson, showing London how this sort of thing's done up in Cheshire.

Those Cheshire partners Bill and Tehlma could hardly believe it when they were declared the winners.

Well, there's fame for you: Rock-n-Roll champions of Great Britain, and a cup to prove it.
