

A RODEO THRILLER!

✓
Shades of BEN-HUR -- updated for the modern rodeo - as costumed chariot racers provide an added attraction at the charity Firemen's Rodeo in San Jose, California. The crowd witnesses the unexpected; a chariot break loose in the outfield --and the driver tossed out in the infield! Meanwhile - back at the "ranch" -- the cowpokes give the broncs and bulls a tumble. Or is it vice versa? Nothing like a spin or two to cool you off in the hot weather. "Oh, yeah!"? Here's a rider determined to sit one out. Good idea....but the whole thing is "over the bull's head!"
