MOTO-CROSS GRAND PRIX

PATHE NEWS: 61/54

Crack riders of Great Britain and nine other countries were away in the International Grand Prix. It was the sixth of the eleven meetings that will decide the Moto-Cross world championship. Sponsors, the Daily Herald.

On a Matchless, 30-year-old Dave Curtiss. He's a farmer from Bicester. Moto-Cross riding's his hobby. And he's proving a match for them all.

Curtiss led all the way. And what a course! They rode two races a total of 24 laps. Length of the circuit, a mile and a third.

Dave Curtiss was the winner.

Then he tried to cool off. Congratulations to Dave Curtiss.
