

STADIUM FOR 1962 GAMES

Preparations are well advanced at Bold Park Stadium, Perth, site of the Commonwealth Games, which will be contested in 1962. To see how it was coming along, Prime Minister Menzies paid a special visit, and was shown the complete plan by the organisers. The Australian Government is contributing £160,000 towards the cost of it all. Games Village will house the competitors. Mr. Menzies said it was a tonic to look over the huge panorama and see how brilliantly everybody concerned was carrying out the big task.

Next year the rest of the Commonwealth will be congratulating Australia on a great job.
