

QUEEN OF SEASIDE.

Inside the Winter Gardens, Rothesay, nearly 20 of Scotland's beauties were on stage, for the judges to decide which of them was the Seaside Queen. These girls were all winners of earlier competitions, held at holiday resorts; now it remained to select the prettiest and most shapely of them all.

When you're 21, sonny, they'll let you in. Jean Seddon won at Dumoon.

The judges made it easier for themselves, by choosing the best six - a short list

The winner was Anna Mackay, of Glasgow, Number 12.

Wearing the sash of victory, Anna showed herself to the folks outside, who hadn't been able to gatecrash the full house. Flanked by the runners up, Anna Mackay.
