

IT'S COOLER ON ICE.

32 lovely skaters of the famous Ice Capades opened the show's new tour of America with a great performance in Atlantic City. One got left behind, but she was one of those fast girls that soon catch up.

Reckoned the world's best skater on indoor ice, Ronnie Robertson, had the audience holding their breath.

Romayne and Steele, whose act has enthralled thousands all over the States during their five-year partnership.

That beautiful figure on the end of the line, isn't she just - well, no, she isn't. It's a He: Eric Waite, the Ice Capades' top comedian; with the knack of getting right to the audience.
