The BLANFORD WEDDING

35 mm. original negative: 110 meters - 370 ft

This afternoon at 3 p.m. in the Greek Orthodox church of Rue Georges Bizet in Paris, the Marquess of Blanford, son of the Duke of Marlborough was married to Tina Livanos, ex Mrs. Onassis, whom she divorced two years ago.

The Duke of Marlborough and his two daughters, had flown from London this morning to be present at the ceremony, and on Tina Livanos's side were her mother and father Mr. and Mrs. Stavros Livanos, her Grand'mother Mrs. Zafaris, her brother Georges Livanos, and her sister, Mrs. Miarhos. The entire greek great tankers' fleet owners were for once together...

This coverage shows :

- Arrival of Lord Blanford
- Two ~~indistinct~~ Ladies of the family entering the church
- Close up and shots of Tina Livanos arriving and entering the church
- guests entering church
- a few shots inside church while guests are taking their seats
(then cameramen were ousted)
- the newly weds coming out of the church after the ceremony, and crowd of photographers rushing around them.
