POST OFFICE WITH THE LOT

Confused by the latest of Postmaster General Bevins telephone innovations? S.T.D., new look 'phone booths, timed calls, etcetera - they've nothing on this little contraption by Emmet.

Rowland Emmet, here looking at his handiwork, is well known for his - to say the least - unusual works of art, and this is his idea of how the Post Office conducts its multifarious operations.

Emmet's interpretation of Premium Bonds.

This is the Emmet Subscriber Trunk Telephone which, thanks to his farsighted charity is now as clear as Nuclear Physics to the Telegram boy.
