

BUTLIN REUNION

Some top class dancing by future ballroom stars entertained thousands at the Butlin Reunion in the Albert Hall.

Next, came the turn of those illustrious footballers, the Show Biz eleven, adapting themselves to the small pitch, with no difficulty at all.

Congratulations all round, Tommy Steele included.

Richard Todd featured in the presentations.

Lord Boothby was there with a very pleasant assignment - to receive some money. Not, however, for himself but at the hands of Billy Butlin a handsome cheque for £7,500, for the National Playing Fields Association, Richard Todd presented the Trophy to the manager of Bognor Camp, which collected most.
