

2-200011

62/21

MUSSO'S SON WEDS

Lovely Sophia Loren embraced Romano Mussolini in the little church at Predappio where, in the presence also of his mother, he was married to Marie Scicolone, Sophia's pretty sister. She is 23; Romano, 33, is a jazz pianist. Just before the ceremony he had a fainting fit, but recovered in time. Rumour said that Sophia didn't at first like the idea of her sister marrying into the Mussolini family but she withdraw her objection. The Italian ceremony requires each partner to give the other a ring.

Outside it was pandemonium; 5,000 clamoured to get near the happy couple.

700 people crowded into the reception, where the wedding cake matched the importance of the occasion, and then some.

Romano has got himself quite a bride.