

BANGOR BEAT CARDIFF.

Cardiff City kicked off at Wrexham in the Semi-Final against Bangor city. Cardiff in white shirts. The Cheshire Leaguers weren't daunted by their First Division opponents, who were under fire in an early attack.

The lure of the Welsh Cup produced excitement galore, and the ball got an airing from end to end. It was a type of football not often seen in Division One, and that may have unsettled Cardiff.

An anxious moment in the Bangor goalmouth.

Roy Matthews, Bangor outside-right, took the ball to the other end. At the right moment he passed to centre-forward Eddie Brown. Goal to Bangor City.

Fired by success, Bangor pressed again, and Cardiff were in danger. Hunter netted, but it was no goal; disallowed.

Len Davies saved brilliantly. A narrow escape for Bangor.

Half time, Bangor leading one-nil. An optimistic early attack was easily repelled.

Graham Vearncombe, watchful in the Cardiff goal, and soon under fire again.

A shot: And another goal for Bangor. Eddie Brown saved.

Cardiff right back Trevor Edwards started an attack. Two goals down his side had to be something. It was now or never. Bangor stayed cool and were soon out of trouble.

Near the end one Cardiff shot did test Len Davies, but it was as near as Cardiff could get. Bangor won a well deserved victory, two-nil.
