Dear Madam,

Sale of Russian Saddle Horses.

We are in receipt of your letter of the 1st June for which we thank you.

It will be quite in order for you to send a newsreel cameraman to the above Sale, but as in the case of all photographers he must act under our control. On arrival at the Sale he should contact Mr. Bruce Deane.

The Sale is being held at Crippenden Manor, Cowden, Nr. Edenbridge, Kent on Wednesday 27th June, commencing at 2.30 p.m. and a catalogue, with a map on the back, will be sent to you as soon as issued.

Yours faithfully, ,

Tattersalls.

Dear Madam,

Sale of Russian Saddle Horses.

Further to our telephone conversation to-day we enclose a catalogue of the above Sale with a map on the back. We understand that your Mr. Whittaker will be arriving at Crippenden Manor at about 12 noon on Wednesday, and we would be obliged if he would contact Mr. Deane at, or near, our office.

Mr. Provatoroff, the Russian Agent, would indeed be most grateful if you could let him have a copy of the film which you will be taking, so that he can send it out to the Russian Government.

Yours faithfully,

Tattersalls
