

The Three A,s National Championships drew a crowd of 18,000 at the White City. All eyes now on the 440.

K.J. Wilcock of Sutton, St. Helens, followed by Setti and the great Robbie Brightwell at this stage.

Brightwell takes the lead. In the absence of Adrian Metcalfe there's no one now to make a serious challenge.

In 45.9 seconds Brightwell wins splendidly; only one fifth of a second slower than the world record.

The dramatic finish of the three miles. The bare-footed Bruce Tulloh beating the 18-year-old Canadian marvel Bruce Kidd.

The winner's time, 13 mins., 16 seconds, only 6 seconds outside the world record.

Just the sort of man to marry; no socks to darn.

Former Olympic hurdler, the Marquis of Exeter, presented the trophy.
