

JUMPING DERBY

62/58

The Wills Gold Trophy attracted 54 horses to the second British Jumping Derby, held on the All-England Jumping Course at Hickstead, Sussex. 16 fences, a 14-foot water jump and a 10ft. bank were spread over a court of 1,305 yards. David Broom at the double 15th.

Tom Brake at the Devil's Dyke.

Pat Moss, up on Navarone, tackling Devil's Dyke.

Pat Smythe was on top of her form.

Tom Wade contested the Jump Off, up on Dundrum, against Pat Symthe. She rode Flanagan.

Pat was safely over, winner of the Jumping Derby.

Another triumph for this remarkable horsewoman, Pat Symthe.
