

62/59

U THANT IN EIRE.

U Thant, acting Secretary General to the United Nations, was welcomed by President de Valera, when he visited Dublin. Welcomed too at the Overseas Club, a united nations in miniature, where people of many countries meet each other.

The Club President and the External Affairs Minister, Mr. Aiken, greeted the Secretary General. U Thant told students how much the United Nations owed to the Republic of Ireland for its contribution to the U.N. Army in the Congo. They in turn wished well to him in his great task as Secretary General.