

62/59

MILLION IN THE BOOT.

A dingy garage in a Jersey City alley - about the last place you'd expect to find a million pounds. But that's what two workmen did find, in the boot of an old car; 2½-m. dollars in notes, plus a few guns. They were traced to a racketeer, Newsboy Moriarty, who's now in jail. He denies the money was ever his. As "Newsboy" owes more than 3m dollars income tax, Uncle Sam takes all this little lot. What a turn-up for the Treasury.