- 1. Title. 15
- 2. C.B. Mears seated says :- "Ladies and Gentlemen, In the budget, Mr. Gaitskell proposes to increase the Cinema Tax. ~~THIS~~ this is unfair discrimination. Let me tell you why - The ordinary man going to a Football Match pays 1 d. in tax, but his wife for her usual seat in the cinema often pays 9 d. in tax. 51 ft.
- 3. C.U. Now Mr. Gaitskell wants her to pay 11 d. - eleven times as much as her husband. This is just not fair. ~~Housewives make up a~~ major part of Cinema audiences. It's a great rest and relaxation for them from growing domestic worries. 51
- 4. C.U. So this is another burden on the women in the home. In fact, of course, it's an additional tax on all of us. Mr. Gaitskell must change his mind. If you agree with me - write and tell your M.P.

THANK YOU.
