

ROYAL VISIT TO ZAGREB.

Prince Paul, Prince Regent of Yugoslavia, sets the seal upon Croatia's new status, as a self governing province... He is accompanied by his consort, Princess Olga, sister of the Duchess of Kent.

This is Prince Paul's first visit to Zagreb for eighteen years and signals it is hoped, a future of happiness for the reunited nation of Yugoslavia. At least one happy note, in a world torn with war and fears of war.