SKIS FOR FINLAND.

The heroic Finnish troops are short of skis. So Swedish sportsmen make a truly sportsmanlike gesture. They collect thousands of pairs from all over Sweden, and pile them up on the platform, of Stockholm's ~~great~~ Northern Station, for dispatch to Finland... This is the result of an appeal broadcast, by Sven Ciof Sandberg, a famous radio artiste.

So it is, that these articles, made for the pleasures of peace, find their way to the grim theatre of war.
