Clyde, in the dark shirts, take the field at Celtic Park against Motherwell in the Scottish Cup Semi Final. Motherwell kick off, and the ball goes to Aitken - Clinton and Quinn jump for it - a quick tussle, and Clyde's left-back Haddock takes it away. And very soon it's Clyde on the attack for a lightning goal by Coyle!

Now Clyde are trying again - but this time Keeper Hastic Weir stops it, and Motherwell are on the move, with Rea speeding down the wing. He centres - but there's no one to take it, and McCulloch collects it easily.

But most of the time it's the Motherwell goal under attack. A corner for Clyde, taken by Herd.

McCann gets his head to it, and Martis clears.

Another Clyde attack - and once again it's quick moving Coyle who finds the net! So Clyde are two up at half-time - and when, early in the second half, they make it three, there's alarm in the Motherwell camp. A corner gives them a chance - but it's missed.

Clyde step up the pressure, trying hard to make it a real white-washing - and quite certain that the result's in the bag. But Motherwell are beginning to rally their forces; their defence tightens up, and they hold off one attack after another.

And at least, their reward - McCulloch fumbles, and Quinn lands Motherwell's first goal!

Clyde do everything they can to hit back - but Motherwell's confidence is returning. Goalie Weir's working like a champion, and the Clyde forwards can't make any impression. Ten minutes from time, a neat pass from Forrest gives St. John his chance and it's 3-2! For the rest of the game, Motherwell battle bravely to equalise - but ~~xxxx~~ that's how it stays, so it's Clyde for the final!
