

5 - JAFFCO
40/2

DEFENDERS OF THE EMPIRE.

The Empire's New Year Greeting to the Mother Country... is to send its sons to join us in the fight. The Australian airmen who landed only a few days before..... parade for their first inspection. They are reviewed by Sir Frederick Buxhill, Commander in Chief of the Coastal Command.. who is accompanied by the Aussie own leader, Wing Commander Ischall

And in the dress of one of the Mustangs, Sir Frederick addresses them.

The Australians are to have their first experience of War with the Coastal Command of the Royal Air Force, defending the shores of Britain. And are they happy to get down to work? O.K.Brother.

And the men of New Zealand, are inspected by the High Commissioner Mr. Jordan - and Lord Willington - These men were in this country when war broke out, and it didn't take them long to form their own anti-tank Battery. They too are proud to serve the common cause.

And now its welcome to the second contingent of the Canadian Active Service Force. They arrive at a West Coast Port, after crossing the Atlantic safely, thanks to the vigilance not only of the Royal Navy, but also of an escort of P-escort warships.

And they bring with them the message that "all the Empire stands together in the fight for freedom".

Here are the faces of the sons of the Empire, they know that our battle

0-425/2

-

is their's too, and that in the final victory all the world will share in security and freedom.      So look out Hitler .... here we come.