CHRISTMAS IN FINLAND.

All the free world is applauding Finland's gallant fight against aggression. Not only on the battlefield .... but also in their hearts... the Finnish people are showing their magnificent spirit this Christmas. In the land of Reindeers and sleighs .... its time for feasting and fun. Even the danger of air attack cannot spoil their festival.

At Rovaniemi there's an air raid warning on Xmas Day. Quietly the Finns take shelter..... quietly they come up again when the all-clear signal sounds. And life goes on as before. All free peoples hate war. But when the time for Battle comes, a Free people fighting of its own free will is stronger than mass drilled force. From the Battle front comes dramatic pictures of Finland's victorious defence.

A Russian Convoy was ambushed by the Finnish Army and completely destroyed. Among the wreckage the Finns found propaganda films which were to have been shown in Helsinki.... after the Russians had taken the Capital. Band instruments for the Victory Parade..... Portraits of Stalin which might have been hung on Helsinki's Walls. The wreckage tells its own story of defeat... and the tragic horror of war.
