SNOW IN ROME.

The White Beauty of Winter comes to the Italian Capital.
The glory that was Rome is framed in Fleecy softness...
an unusual spectacle.

It isn't so hot for motorists, and most people get to the Office with cold feet.... but it makes a lovely picture.

The eternal city rides on seven hills and when the snow is firm and smooth that's just the way you want it.
so becomes a daisy..... we're going down.

Just the sort of a day for a lovely hot cup of Coffee.

But hard luck... coffee's rationed in Italy.

You'd almost think there was a war on somewhere.
