U.S. ARMY V. NAVY FOOTBALL

Before the game at Philadelphia's Municipal Stadium, the middies from the Naval Academy take command of the field, slightly an underdog in the face of a strong cadet team. The Army's a bit over confident and spirits run high but things are soon dampened by the weather plus Bob Leonard's place kick from the 22 which splits the goal posts and Navy leads three to nothing. A hundred thousand peer through the fog to see Hatcham, Army, take a kick and then start tearing around his own right end to reel off 15 yards. Now the Army Air Corps. goes into action with Hatch firing one out to Adams down the side-line and it picks up thirty. Here's Army's chance with Hatch doing the bombarding, near target Navy's Gillette intercepts and Army's air attack fails. Navy takes advantage of the break to start hammering through the air. In the final period on the very first play Navy sends Dick Schaeffer off tackle, he dives through, past the Army defenders and Navy wins ten to nothing as Schaeffer dives across.
