

5-878-100/5

THE FIRST LORD GOES TO SEE

But it isn't the kind of sea you think that Mr. Churchill goes to see... Its the newly named British Air Force in France who is in the Army. The First Lord sees the machines and the men and the way they live. And so far as the men are concerned there's welcome written all over their faces.

He's accompanied by his son Mr. Randolph Churchill...