

PATHE GAZETTE: 40/7. (DUBLIN ~~GAZETTE~~)

FANCY DRESS HOCKEY AT KIMMAGE, DUBLIN

The Bernadet Panto Players and the Melwood Dramatic Society get into their glad rags for a barney on the Kimmage ground and from the bully off it's a riot. With human wardrobes scampering hither and dither on frosty mother earth. In spite of the handicap flowing robes and bounteous bags someone does manage to plant a goal in the net. It landed so unexpectedly you could have knocked his hat off. In the second half, or maybe the third half, play goes along quite smoothly until the wicket keeper or something is knocked out, he was such a nice boy too, but without him it's hard to carry on. So it's a far, far better thing they do now. They carry him off!