

PATHE GAZETTE: 40/7. (DUBLIN REEL)

CHAMPION DIVERS AT SANTA BARBARA

Fancy diving headlines the California sports pages, as the champions splash into the Santa Barbara Pool, to open the winter aquatic season. Olympic title holders Ruth Jump and Marjorie Gastri nearest the camera in a difficult one and a half. Ruth and Marjorie again in the most graceful of all dives, the swan. Harry Perry does a running full gaynor. Champion Johnny's famous handstand dive. Young Norman Spear shows top flight form in a gaynor. Johnny Riley in a full twisting one and a half. Ruth Jump launches out in a beautiful poised half gaynor. And here's Marjorie Gastri somersaulting into a one and a half. Diving scores a bullseye as human bullet Johnny Riley hits dead centre in a living target.